

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1018 - SB 1399

March 13, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Exempts a person reinstating his/her commercial driver license, which was suspended for DUI, from the written examination if the application for reinstatement is received within two years of the conviction. Current Department of Safety rules authorize exemption within five years.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- A not significant increase in state expenditures as a result of administering more written examinations.
